CHAPTER 51.

An act to cede to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over Yosemite national park, Sequoia national park, and General Grant national park in the State of California.

[Approved April 15, 1919. In effect July 22, 1919.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Jurisdiction over national parks ceded
to U. S.

SECTION 1. Exclusive jurisdiction shall be and the same is hereby ceded to the United States over and within all of the territory which is now or may hereafter be included in those several tracts of land in the State of California set aside and dedicated for park purposes by the United States as "Yosemite national park," "Sequoia national park," and "General Grant national park" respectively; saving, however, to the State of California the right to serve civil or criminal process within the limits of the aforesaid parks in suits or prosecutions for or on account of rights acquired, obligations incurred or crimes committed in said state outside of said parks; and saving further, to the said state the right to tax persons and corporations, their franchises and property on the lands included in said parks, and the right to fix and collect license fees for fishing in said parks; and saving also to the persons residing in any of said parks now or hereafter the right to vote at all elections held within the county or counties in which said parks are situate; provided, however, that jurisdiction shall not vest until the United States through the proper officer notifies the State of California that they assume police jurisdiction over said parks.

CHAPTER 52.

An act to amend section four thousand two hundred forty-three of the Political Code, relating to the compensation of officers of counties of the fourteenth class.

[Approved April 15, 1919. In effect July 22, 1919.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four thousand two hundred forty-three of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Counties of 14th class, salaries of officers.

4243. In counties of the fourteenth class, the county officers shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law, or by virtue of their office, the following salaries, to wit:

County clerk.

1. The county clerk, two thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; provided, that in counties of this class there
